

Turkish American Women's Scholarship Fund

Proudly Presents

Turkey and the Arab Spring

by Joseph Yackley*

Date: Sunday, December 4th 2011

Time: 5:00 pm – 7:00 pm

Place: Naperville Woman's Club

14 South Washington Street, Naperville, IL 60540-5475

For directions and map please click here

Free parking on W. Van Burren Avenue, opposite side of the street

---

Suggested donation: $25 adults and $15 students

Appetizers, soft drinks and wine will be served

RSVP by December 1, 2011 to TAWSF at info@tawsf.org or

Ayhan Lash: (630) 420-0009 or ayhanalash@comcast.net

Turkish American Women's Scholarship Fund is a not-for-profit 501c3 organization dedicated to the college education of women in Turkey since 1989 (Tax Exempt ID 36-3795606).

All proceeds from this event will benefit TAWSF

www.TAWSF.org

---

* Joe Yackley is a Senior Editor with the Oxford Business Group and a Ph.D. candidate in the Department of Near Eastern Languages and Civilizations at the University of Chicago. Yackley received his B.A. from Northwestern University and his M.A. from the University of Chicago. In a decade of resident consultancy, research, and journalism in Europe and the Middle East, Joe has written for a variety of newspapers, magazines, and wire services in English, Turkish, and German. He returned last year from six months each in Egypt and Turkey as a Fulbright Scholar. Joe has also held fellowships from the Robert Bosch Foundation, the State Department, and the International Center for Journalists. He teaches a course at the University of Chicago on Political Economy of the Middle East and is a co-author of Risk Rules: How Local Politics Threaten the Global Economy (Agate, 2011). Copies of the book will be available for purchase at the end of the program.